Prelude: Louis Vierne, Cortège from Trois Improvisations

The congregation gathers, branches are distributed and the priest greets the people saying

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

The children of the Hebrews, bearing branches, went out to meet the Lord, crying out and saying:

Hosanna in the highest,
blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord,
Hosanna in the highest.

The priest says the following

We begin this morning the Great Week of the Christian year. During Lent we have been preparing for the celebration of our Lord's death and resurrection, by prayer and by works of love and self-denial. Today we come together with the Church throughout the world to call to mind, and to express in word and action, our Lord's Passover from death to life, which is the centre of the Easter mystery. Today we greet him as our king, although we know his crown is thorns and his throne a cross. We follow him this week from the glory of the palms to the glory of the resurrection by way of suffering and death. United with him in his suffering on the cross may we share his resurrection and new life.

Let us pray

Blessed are you, Almighty God, whose Son Jesus Christ entered in triumph into the holy city this day to complete his work as our Messiah.
May these branches and crosses † of palm which we bless in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, be signs of the victory of your Son.
May we who carry them in his name ever hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life;
who now lives and reigns in glory with you and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

The crosses are distributed

The children of the Hebrews, bearing the branches of love, went out to meet the Lord, crying out and saying,
Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord,
Hosanna in the highest!

The Reading of the Gospel (read without announcement) (Gospel at 8am)

When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples and said to them, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, "Why are you doing this?" just say this, "The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately." ' They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, 'What are you doing, untying the colt?' They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting, 'Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David! Hosanna in the highest heaven!' Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

Mark 11.1-11

Let us pray

Merciful God,
as we enter this Holy Week and gather at your house of prayer, turn our hearts again to Jerusalem,
to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, that united with Christ and all the faithful,
we may one day enter in triumph the city not made with hands,

the new Jerusalem, eternal in the heavens,
where, with you and the Holy Spirit,
Christ lives in glory for ever. Amen.

Let us go forth, praising Jesus our Messiah.
In the name of Christ. Amen.

The congregation processes around the church singing Hymn: 509 NEH

*Refrain:
All glory, laud and honour
To thee, Redeemer, King,
To whom the lips of children
Made sweet hosannas ring.*

1. Thou art the King of Israel,
Thou David's royal Son,
Who in the Lord's name comest,
The King and blessed One.

Refrain

2. The company of angels
Are praising thee on high,
And we and all creation
Exultant make reply.

Refrain

3. The people of the Hebrews
With palms before thee went;
Our praise and prayer and anthems
Before thee we present.

Refrain

4. To thee before thy passion
They sang their hymns of praise;
To thee, now high exalted,
Our melody we raise.

Refrain

5. Thou didst accept their praises;
Accept the prayers we bring,
Who in all good delightest,
Thou good and gracious King.

Refrain

The New English Hymnal

Let us pray that we may grow in the self-sacrificing love of Christ:

Everlasting God,
in your tender love for the human race you sent your Son to take our nature, and to suffer death upon the cross:
in your mercy enable us to share in his obedience to your will and in the glorious victory of his resurrection;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Prayer of the Season

Almighty and everlasting God, you hate nothing that you have made,
and you forgive the sins of all who are penitent:
create and make in us new and contrite hearts,
that we, worthily lamenting our sins,
and acknowledging our wretchedness,
may obtain of you, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah

The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word.
Morning by morning he wakens – wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught.

The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious,
I did not turn backward. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard;
I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near.

Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together.

Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me.

It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

Isaiah 50.4-9a

Hear the Word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

Psalms 31.9-18 (said antiphonally)

9. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble:
my eye wastes away for grief, my throat also and my inward parts.
10. For my life wears out in sorrow, and my years with sighing:
my strength fails me in my affliction, and my bones are consumed.
11. I am become the scorn of all my enemies:
and my neighbours wag their heads in derision.

12. I am a thing of horror to my friends:
and those that see me in the street shrink from me.
13. I am forgotten like one dead and out of mind:
I have become like a broken vessel.
14. For I hear the whispering of many:
and fear is on every side;
15. While they plot together against me:
and scheme to take away my life.
16. But in you, Lord, have I put my trust:
I have said 'You are my God.'
17. All my days are in your hand:
O deliver me from the power of my enemies and from my persecutors.
18. Make your face to shine upon your servant:
and save me for your mercy's sake.

A Reading from Paul's Letter to the Philippians

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death – even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2.5-11

Hear the Word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn: 348 TIS

1. Ride on, ride on in majesty;
Hark, all the tribes hosanna cry!
O Saviour, meek, pursue your road
With palms and scattered garments strowed.
2. Ride on, ride on in majesty,
In lowly pomp ride on to die;
O Christ, your triumphs now begin O'er captive death and conquered sin.

3. Ride on, ride on in majesty;
The wingèd squadrons of the sky
Look down with sad and wondering eyes
To see the approaching sacrifice.
4. Ride on, ride on in majesty,
In lowly pomp ride on to die;
Bow your meek head to mortal pain,
Then take, O God, your power and reign!

The Nicene Creed

Let us together affirm the faith of the Church.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The priest says

Let us pray for the world and for the Church.

The response to 'Jesus, Son of David, let us follow in your way' is

Let us walk with you to Jerusalem.

The prayers may conclude with

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.
Grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

God shows great love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

Silence may be kept

Let us then confess our sins in penitence and faith.

Merciful God, our maker and our judge,
we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
and in what we have failed to do:
we have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves;
we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.
Father, forgive us.
Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Absolution. The priest says

Almighty God,
who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith:
pardon you and set you free from all your sins, strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

All stand for the Greeting of Peace

Christ has reconciled us to God in one body by the cross.

We meet in his name and share his peace.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

Offertory Hymn: 94 NEH

1. We sing the praise of him who died,
Of him who died upon the Cross;
The sinner's hope though all deride:
For this we count the world but loss.

2. Inscribed upon the Cross we see
In shining letters, 'God is Love';
He bears our sins upon the Tree;
He brings us mercy from above.
3. The Cross! it takes our guilt away;
It holds the fainting spirit up;
It cheers with hope the gloomy day
And sweetens ev'ry bitter cup.
4. It makes the coward spirit brave,
And nerves the feeble arm for fight;
It takes all terror from the grave,
And gilds the bed of death with light;
5. The balm of life, the cure of woe,
The measure and the pledge of love,
The sinner's refuge here below,
The angels' theme in heaven above.

The gifts of the people having been brought to the Altar

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation.
Through your goodness we have these gifts to share.
Accept and use our offerings for your glory and for the service of your kingdom.
Blessed be God for ever.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

All glory, laud and honour be yours always and everywhere, mighty Creator, ever living God.

Words: Thomas Kelly 1769-1855 alt
The New English Hymnal

We give you thanks and praise for your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ, who became obedient unto death,
even death on a cross.

He offered the one true sacrifice for sin,
and obtained an eternal deliverance for his people.

The tree of defeat became the tree of victory;
where life was lost, there life has been restored.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven,
we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and saying / singing:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Holy and gracious God,
all creation rightly gives you praise.
All life, all holiness, comes from you through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, whom you sent to share our human nature,
to live and die as one of us,
to reconcile us to you,
the God and Father of all.

Hear us, merciful Lord;
through Christ accept our sacrifice of praise;
and, by the power of your Word and Holy Spirit, sanctify this bread and wine, that we who share in this holy sacrament may be partakers of Christ's body and blood.

Who, when his hour had come,
on the night before he went up to the cross to make full atonement for the sins of the whole world, offering once for all his one sacrifice of himself, took bread and gave you thanks;

he broke it and gave it to his disciples saying,
'Take, eat:
this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.'

In the same way, after supper
he took the cup and gave you thanks;
he gave it to them, saying,
'Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it,
in remembrance of me.'

[Let us proclaim the mystery of faith]

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Therefore, in obedience to his command, we commemorate and celebrate his saving passion and death, his mighty resurrection and ascension into heaven and we eagerly await his coming again in glory.

We thank you that by your grace alone
you have accepted us in Christ;
and here we offer you a spiritual sacrifice,
holy and acceptable in your sight.
Through Christ, receive this our duty and service, and grant that we who eat and drink these holy gifts
may, by your Holy Spirit, be one body in Christ,
and serve you in unity and peace.

In your grace and mercy,
bring us to the joy of your eternal kingdom with all the company of the redeemed.
May we praise you in union with them, and give you glory through your Son, Jesus Christ.

Through him, with him, in him,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

we worship you Father eternal, in songs of never ending praise:

Blessing and honour and glory and power are yours for ever and ever. Amen.

As our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are confident to pray,

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory, are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD AND THE COMMUNION

We who are many are one body in Christ, for we all share in the one bread.

Jesus, Lamb of God, have mercy on us
Jesus, bearer of our sins, have mercy on us
Jesus, redeemer of the world, grant us your peace

The invitation to receive Holy Communion

Come let us take this holy sacrament of the body and blood of Christ in remembrance that he died for us, and feed on him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

*The sacrament is given with the following words, after which the communicant responds Amen

The body of Christ keep you in eternal life. Amen.
The blood of Christ keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Post Communion Hymn: 82 NEH (please kneel if possible)

1. Drop, drop, slow tears,
And bathe those beautiful feet,
Which brought from heaven
The news and Prince of peace.
2. Cease not, wet eyes,
His mercies to entreat;
To cry for vengeance
Sin doth never cease.
3. In your deep floods
Drown all my faults and fears;
Nor let his eye
See sin, but through my tears.

Words: Phineas Fletcher 1582-1650
The New English Hymnal

THE SENDING OUT OF GOD'S PEOPLE

The priest says

God our help and strength, through these holy mysteries confirm our faith that by the death and resurrection of your Son we may walk in the way of salvation.

Father,
we offer ourselves to you as a living sacrifice
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory.

Notices and invitations

Dismissal Hymn: 391 NEH

1. King of glory, King of peace,
I will love thee;
And that love may never cease,
I will move thee.
Thou hast granted my request,
Thou hast heard me;
Thou didst note my working breast,
Thou hast spared me.
2. Wherefore with my utmost art
I will sing thee,
And the cream of all my heart
I will bring thee.
Though my sins against me cried,
Thou didst clear me;
And alone, when they replied,
Thou didst hear me.

3. Seven whole days, not one in seven,
I will praise thee;
In my heart, though not in heaven,
I can raise thee.
Small it is, in this poor sort
To enrol thee:
E'en eternity's too short
To extol thee.

Words: George Herbert 1593-1633
The New English Hymnal

The Blessing

Christ our Saviour draw you to himself, that you may find in him crucified a sure ground for faith, a firm support for hope, and the assurance of sin forgiven and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always. Amen.

Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord:
In the name of Christ. Amen.

A message from the Locum Vicar

As Jesus drew near to Jerusalem the crowds met him and heralded his entry with palms and cloaks. Many thanks to those who have helped us enter into the spirit of Palm Sunday by making palm crosses and decorating the church.

Today we begin Holy Week and I hope you might make a special effort to attend our extra services. I will also be at St Paul's Cathedral on Tuesday when the clergy of the Diocese will gather for the Chrism Mass. At this service each year the Archbishop blesses the holy oils used at Baptisms, Ordinations, Confirmations and healing of the sick. The clergy also reaffirm their ordination vows – Deacons, Priests and Bishops – it's a beautiful service and a solemn reminder of the great trust given to us.

On Friday we will have the annual 'Walk of Witness' – an opportunity to share our faith with our brothers and sisters of the other Christian Churches in Cheltenham. If you are able I hope you can join me for this occasion.

Then we will follow this with Good Friday Devotions at midday and the Stations of the Cross at 2pm. We will have our Organist, Edwin to help us musically and so add to the importance of keeping this Holy Day – I look forward to seeing you.

Every blessing, Fr Ray McInnes
