BCP SERVICE – THE HOLY COMMUNION

GATHERING IN GOD'S NAME

Page 1 BCP then Page 3 BCP

The Collect of the Day

O God,
who before the Passion of thine only-begotten Son
didst reveal his glory upon the holy mount:
Grant unto us thy servants,
that in faith beholding the light of his countenance,
we may be strengthened to bear the cross,
and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory;
through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for Holy Name Day

O God,
you have made the most glorious Name of your Son Jesus Christ
to be the stronghold of your faithful people
and a sure defence against the spirit of evil:
mercifully grant, that we who honour the Name of Jesus
upon earth may make your salvation known to all people, and in the world to come attain to the glory of the redeemed
in everlasting joy, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is written in the first Chapter of the second Epistle of Peter beginning at the sixteenth Verse.

For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:

Hear endeth the Epistle.

The Gospel

The Holy Gospel is written in the seventeenth Chapter of Matthew, beginning at the first Verse.

Glory to thee Lord Christ.

And after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart, And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him. Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias. While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid. And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only. And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

Praise to thee Lord Christ.

1549 - The First Book of Common Prayer

As part of our liturgical celebration for our sesquicentenary, we will travel back in time using various forms of the Eucharist.

The last in our series is the service known as 'The Supper of the Lorde and the Holy Communion, commonly called the Masse'. This will be used at both services on Sunday 27 August.

"Although a formal break with the Papacy came about during the time of Henry VIII, the Church of England continued to use liturgies in Latin throughout his reign, just as it always had. However, once Henry died and the young Edward VI attained the throne in 1547, the stage was set for some very significant changes in the religious life of the country. And so a consultation of bishops met and produced the first Book of Common Prayer."

"The work of 1549 was the first prayer book to include the complete forms of service for daily and Sunday worship in English. It contained Morning Prayer, Evening Prayer, the Litany, and Holy Communion and also the occasional services in full: the orders for Baptism, Confirmation, Marriage, 'prayers to be said with the sick' and a Funeral service. It also set out in full the "propers" (that is the parts of the service which varied week by week or, at times, daily throughout the Church's Year): the collects and the epistle and gospel readings for the Sunday Communion Service. Old Testament and New Testament readings for daily prayer were specified in tabular format as were the Psalms; and canticles, mostly biblical, that were provided to be said or sung between the readings."

The Transfiguration

While he was still speaking, a bright cloud enveloped them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!" Matthew 17:5 (NIV)
